THE VICEROY'S HOUSE,

NEW DELHI.

May 21st, 1942.

To THE CIVIL SERVICES OF INDIA.

A little more than six years ago, I spoke to you, who are members of the Civil Services of India. I asked you to give to the people of India the best that is in you, to the limits of your strength, in the difficult years to come. I spoke to you at a time of peace, when none of us knew what grave events and what tremendous problems the years would bring. I asked you then for your support and help; and, in peace and war, I have had it in full measure. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for it.

Yours is a brotherhood of service the like of which the world has never seen before. Men of different race and religion, Indians and Britons, highly trained and carefully chosen for your respective duties, you are linked together by common allegiance to one Crown and pledged to the service of millions of your fellow men, in many different fields, —Engineers, Doctors, Foresters, Scientists, Educationists, Policemen, Judges, Administrators and many others. You and your predecessors have set high standards, of loyalty, impartiality, sound judgment, humanity, an unselfish example and a co-operative spirit. By the steadiness with which you persevere in these, the torch which you hold up in India can be a bright flame of hope and encouragement in a distracted world.

Hard work, great responsibilities, often danger and discomfort, are your lot. In spite of this, I know well how keenly disappointed many of you are that you are not allowed at this time to serve your country on the battle-field. But let none of you think for a moment that he is not fighting for his country by steadily pursuing his appointed task, however prosaic and unspectacular that may seem to be, and by shouldering cheerfully the additional burdens of the war. The rule of law, peace and security for the citizen, and the progress of civilized arts and sciences, which it is your task to promote and guard, are the very conditions of decent living for which we are all fighting. For the sake of the future and for the maintenance of public morale today ; for the safety and well-being of many helpless people who depend upon you, there must be no interruption of your work. If you were to slacken or falter you would betray the common cause as surely as a soldier who deserts his post ; and that I know you will never willingly do.

Remember that the individual soldier can see only a small part of the battle-field : remember, too, that although the lime-light may not fall your way, the eyes of the people are fixed on you, and their temper and steadiness, if trouble should come, will greatly depend upon your leadership and your example. Be with them as much as possible. Serve and comfort them always. Put away doubts, and face whatever trials the future may bring with high hearts and a firm resolve to give the best you have got, and better still, of body and mind in whatever field your duty may be set. You are heirs to great traditions of courage and service, which you will not fail ; and today it is in the power of each of you to add a splendid page to the record.

Victory is assured, but single-minded endeavour now can bring the day of victory nearer. There is work enough for each one of you today : and when the swords are sheathed again, and a new world has to be built, there will be no lack of opportunity to share that great task, I promise you, for devoted and unselfish men and women in this India which you serve Governor-General of India.

The Bengal Children Act extends to the town of Calcutta, the suburbs and the port of Calcutta, the municipality of Howrah, the police-stations of Bally, Jagacha, Sankrail and Domjur in the district of Howrah and the police-stations of Baranagar, Barrackpore, Titagarh, Noapara, Khardah, Naihati and Jagatdal in the district of the 24-Parganas. The following sections of the Act have not yet been brought into force in any part of Bengal —

Section 27 (1), (i), (ii), (iii), (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f).

Section 27 (2), (a), (b), (c), (d) and (f)

Section 28 (2)

The Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act is in force in the town, suburbs and port of Calcutta and at Panihati in the district of the 24-Parganas

Sections 2-12, 22-26, 27 (1) and 27 (2) (a) of the Immoral Traffic Act, and the Schedule to that Act were extended to—

(i) Barrackpore police-station (excluding the Barrackpore Cantonment) in the district of the 24-Parganas,

(ii) the Tippera district

The Reformatory Schools Act applies to the part of the province in which the Bengal Children Act is not in force

Boy offenders dealt with by courts in the Children Act area are sent to the Reformatory and Industrial Schools at Alipore and those from outside this area are sent to the Reformatory School at Hazaribagh in the province of Bihar under the provisions of the Reformatory Schools Act

2 During the year 1940, 4,064 children were dealt with by the Central Children Court, Calcutta. The great majority of these were sent up for offences under section 66 of the Calcutta Police Act; 72 were prosecuted under the Bengal Children Act; 17 under the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act, and about 362 for theft and similar offences under the Indian Penal Code and the Indian Railways Act

Eighty-five of these children were sent to a school or other place of custody, distributed as follows —

Reformatory School, Alipore	46
Industrial School, Alipore	28
Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati	6
Salvation Army Home, Behala	4
Society for the Protection of Children in India	1
Total	85

Others were fined or made over to their guardians, while most of those sent up under the Police Act were warned and discharged.

3 The Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore, which are for boys only, are wholly maintained by Government. The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home at Behala, an aided institution, provides a Reformatory School for girls.

The following have been notified as places of suitable custody under section 28 (1) of the Bengal Children Act and under section 27 (2) (b) of the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act —

- (a) The Gobinda Kumar Home, Panihati
- (b) The Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home, Behala
- (c) The Calcutta Protestant Home, commonly called the Fendall Home
- (d) The Society for the Protection of Children in India, Calcutta
- (e) The All-Bengal Women's Industrial Union

4 Controlling agencies.—The Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, continued to be the Chief Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Khan Bahadur A. Rahman and Mr R. G. P. S. Fairbairn were the Assistant Inspectors. The Inspectress of Schools, Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, was the Assistant Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools for Girls.

The places of suitable custody recognised by Government as eligible for grants are inspected by four ladies appointed for the purpose.

5 The following is a brief summary of the activities of the various institutions working under these Acts —

(1) Reformatory and Industrial Schools, Alipore.—These schools which have been established by Government under section 6 (1) of the Bengal Children Act, are under the general administrative control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, while their immediate management is vested in the Superintendent of the Institutions and a Managing Committee appointed under section 7 (1) of the Act.

The combined institutions have accommodation for 194 boys and the entire cost is met from provincial revenues. The proposal for the removal of the institutions to a new site is still under consideration. The acquisition of the site near Tollygunge mentioned in last year's report has been dropped owing to the strong objections of the owners of the land, and an alternative site is under the consideration of Government.

On the 31st December 1940 there were 183 boys in the Reformatory School and 67 boys in the Industrial School making a total of 250 boys against a total of 269 in the previous year.

The number of fresh admissions was 80 in all, viz., 53 in the Reformatory School and 27 in the Industrial School of whom 71 had been convicted of theft or similar offences.

On the 31st December 1940, 135 boys in the two schools were Hindus, 111 Muslims and 3 Christians and there was a Buddhist in the Reformatory School. The numbers of Bengali, Hindi and Urdu speaking boys in 1940 were 108, 64 and 65, respectively, as against the corresponding numbers 112, 76 and 70 in 1939. Of the 250 boys in the two schools only 83 belonged to Bengal proper while the rest were inhabitants of other provinces but were either domiciled in Bengal or had come to this province temporarily mainly from Bihar, United Provinces and Orissa.

Forty-eight boys were released from the Reformatory School and 11 from the Industrial School on the expiry of their terms. Nine boys of the Reformatory School and 19 boys of the Industrial School were released on licence during 1940, 32 were made over to the Bengal After-Care Association and the rest to their guardians.

Eleven boys escaped from the Reformatory School and 1 from the Industrial School. Of these 1 escaped from the hospital, 3 from the outside hospital, 7 from school premises and 1 from his home where he was allowed to go unattended.

Primary education is imparted up to class V and the boys also receive vocational training in tinsmithy, blacksmithy, carpentry, weaving and tailoring. Training in boot and shoemaking is under contemplation and expected to begin from the next financial year. The education of the boys is conducted through the medium of Bengali, Hindi and Urdu in accordance with the approved syllabus. The results of the annual examination both of the general and of the vocational classes were good. Facilities were given for moral and religious instruction and observance. The institution has a small library and a radio set. Arrangements for physical instruction and games were made. As in previous years, boys whose conduct was found to be good were allowed to visit their homes as well as places of interest during holidays and on other occasions. This concession was found to have a very beneficial effect on the boys and its use has been extended.

The general sanitation of the institution was excellent and the health of the boys was, on the whole, good.

The total expenditure on the schools in 1940 was Rs. 58,567 against Rs. 60,129 in 1939, and the average cost of maintaining each pupil was Rs. 231 against Rs. 222 in 1939. The increase in expenditure was due to the rise of price of all food articles on account of the war, and to the employment of extra staff. The schools have been doing valuable work under difficult conditions.

(2) Hazaribagh Reformatory School.—The Reformatory School at Hazaribagh under the control of the Government of Bihar continued to receive youthful offenders of this province sent by the courts of the districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Children Act have not yet been extended. The number of admissions from Bengal during 1940 was 51 only.

During the year under review 3 boys who had been convicted in Bengal were discharged from the school under section 13 (2) and 1 under section 14 (a) of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897.

(3) The Borstal School at Bankura.—The school has functioned for 13 years since 1928 and the record of work for the year 1940 was satisfactory.

General statistics.—There were 246 inmates at the beginning of the year against 248 in the last year. One hundred and twenty-six youthful offenders were received in the school against 110 in 1939 and 125 discharged for all causes against 112 in the previous year, leaving 247 inmates at the end of the year 1940. The daily average population of the school during 1940 was 249.65 against 237.15 during 1939.

Of the total admissions, 93 were received from the Central and District Jails, 27 from Sub-Jails, 2 from Alipore Reformatory School, 1 from Dharwar Borstal School in Bombay and 3 on revocation of licence.

Of the total discharges, 7 were transferred to jails, 17 released on expiry of sentence and 101 released on licence.

Classification.—The procedure of classifying the borstal boys under the (i) House and Group System and (ii) Grade System was continued during 1940 and was found to be satisfactory. A careful study of the antecedents and behaviour of the boys was made and their age and conduct in school were taken into careful consideration for proper classification of the boys.

(i) House and Group System.—The boys were divided into four houses, red, blue, green and white, according to their age. Boys in the different houses were accommodated in separate wards. Arrangements were made to promote and foster esprit-de-corps and healthy rivalry amongst the houses to improve themselves so as to achieve the honour of the best house in the school

As each house comprised a large number of boys, each house was subdivided into groups. This procedure allowed the boys greater facilities to cultivate team-spirit and comradeship in smaller groups each of which was placed under a group-leader, selected from amongst the boys of the group.

(ii) Grade System —For purposes of proper schooling, the boys were divided into ordinary, star, special star and penal classes, in accordance with rule 4 of the Rules for the Control and Management of Borstal Schools in Bengal. The basis of such classification is conduct, health and intelligence of the individual boys in the school. The star and special star class boys were allowed to earn "badge money", special food and special uniform, as usual. The figures below will show the (approximate) daily average number of boys according to the grade system during 1940 —

Class	Number of boys in the class during
	1939	1940
Special star	10	14
Star	78	72
Ordinary and Penal	162	151
Total	250	237

The grade system was found to be of considerable help in the formation of character of the boys and awakening in the boys a sense of duty.

Daily Routine —The daily routine comprised a course of literary education, vocational and industrial instruction as well as physical training. This was so arranged that the boys were kept engaged from early morning till bed time in the night except for meals and rest, thus allowing them no time to indulge in mischievous practices.

Literary Education —The majority of the boys were, on admission into the school, found to be illiterate and consequently the education was principally primary education but as occasion demanded, classes of higher forms were opened for the education of boys up to the Matriculation Standard. Up to the year 1940, 17 boys passed the Matriculation Examination of the Calcutta University from the school. There was, however, no such examinee from the school in 1940.

The annual examination of the school is usually held by the officers of the Inspectorate attached to the Education Department of Government. No such examination was arranged for by the staff of the Education Department within December 1940.

Vocational Training —The aim of the school is to train the boys in some suitable handicraft and to turn out workmen sufficiently skilled to earn their living by honest labour and thus to reclaim them into society.

The boys received training daily under paid instructors in useful industries, viz., tailoring, smithy, carpentry, book-binding, cloth, durrie and ashmi weaving, cane and bamboo works according to the inclination and aptitude of the individual learners. The boys were examined and money prizes were awarded to four boys for proficiency in industries, the prizes being called "Simpson Prizes".

The show room containing samples of articles manufactured in the school by the boys continued to attract public notice and facilitated sale.

The printing press in the Presidency Jail has of late been transferred to this school so as to offer facilities to suitable boys to be trained in an additional industry, viz, printing. A Printing Instructor has also been appointed for the purpose.

Band Party—There is a regular band party in the school. The party consists of suitable boys trained for the purpose. During the year under report a Sikh warder of the Presidency Jail who had previous training in a band was transferred to the school as a petty officer and under his training the band party improved a great deal. The band party played selections at many local public functions, and was appreciated.

Physical Training.—All possible facilities are given to the boys to improve their physique. As in previous years, the boys had one hour's hard physical drill and free-hand exercises in the morning and in the afternoon and on holidays they were kept engaged in recreational games, indoor and outdoor. There is also a gymnasium attached to the school, which was fully used. There is a paid Physical Instructor.

The school football team was allowed to participate in local tournaments, in which it acquitted itself fairly well.

Inter-house competitions in the different games held in the school were keenly contested.

The annual sports were held as usual on the school ground with great success and prizes were awarded to deserving boys.

There was a boy scout troop consisting of 23 boys and there were 21 Bratachari boys in the school during 1940. Regular training was given to them every evening.

Every Sunday the star and special star class boys and the scouts were taken on route marches along the principal roads of the town to the accompaniment of the school band.

There is a club room in the school, which afforded them facilities for meeting for indoor games and for music, viz, the bag pipes and side drums.

Religious Instruction—The honorary religious instructors appointed by the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division visited the school at regular intervals and imparted moral and religious instruction to the boys. Besides, all reasonable facilities were allowed to the boys to observe ceremonies enjoined upon them by the religion professed by them.

Library—Forty-seven books on different subjects were added to the library of the school during 1940. The total number of books in the library at present is 971 against 924 reported last year. The daily average number of books issued during 1940 was 8.8 against 8.5 last year.

Cinema Show—The National Welfare Unit of Government showed some instructive and educative films to the boys, who appreciated them very much.

Visiting Committee—The Visiting Committee appointed in accordance with rule 3 (b) of the Rules for the Control and Management of the School held 12 meetings during the year. Thanks are due to the Committee for the keen interest evinced by them in their work and for valuable advice in the administration of the school.

Boys released from the School—Most of the boys released on licence or on expiry of the term of detention were sent to the Bengal After-Care Association, who arranged to look after them and to provide them with suitable employment, where possible.

A consolidated history of every boy while at school and after discharge is maintained in a book termed "Career Register". All information in this connection is gathered from the Bengal After-Care Association, the Police and other sources and is recorded in the register. Out of 118 boys released from the school during 1940, one hundred boys were sent to the Bengal After-Care Association and the rest to their respective homes

The following table shows the history of these 118 boys :—

(4) Gobinda Kumar Home.—This Home is intended for the reception of Indian girls dealt with under the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act and the Bengal Children Act

On 31st December 1940 there were 85 girls varying from 3 to 17 years of age as against 81 in 1939. All the girls were Hindus. Of them 7 belonged to other provinces and the remainder were Bengalis. There were 12 fresh admissions during the year. Of these 4 were cases under the Bengal Children Act and 8 were under the Immoral Traffic Act.

There is a school attached to the Home in which training is given up to class V of the Middle Vernacular School. There are 2 junior trained teachers besides the Superintendent and a matron. Two senior students one of whom has read up to class VI and the other up to class V are working as honorary teachers. The girls are also taught weaving, sewing and needlework.

The general health of the girls was good and their conduct satisfactory.

The cost of maintaining the Home during 1940 was Rs. 18,510 of which Rs. 9,370-15-1 was met by Government grant.

(5) Salvation Army Women's Industrial Home for Girls at Behala.—This Home also caters for Indian girls dealt with under the two Acts. Its present capacity is 120 girls. The number of girls in the Home on the 31st December 1940 was 73. Three Bengali Hindu girls, one Muslim girl of 14 years of age and one non-Bengali Hindu girl of 13½ years of age were sent to the Home by the Courts during the year. They were dealt with under the Bengal Children Act.

Educational progress in the Home was fair in most cases; the health of the girls was good during the year. The girls were taught sewing and houseworking in addition to general education.

The Home received from Government a maintenance grant of Rs 1,200 in addition to Rs. 3,413 on account of capitation grant for the girls sent there by court.

The total cost incurred in the maintenance of the Home during the year was Rs 11,832-4-3. The amount contributed by the Salvation Army Fund was Rs 4,396.

(6) The Calcutta Protestant Home (the Fendall Home).—This Home is a rescue home for European and Anglo-Indian women and girls. Girls are sent to the Home by churches and social bodies. A fair number of girls needing a home while looking for work, were sent there, while some came there in trouble.

Married	10
Situation as children nurses	22
Situation as hospital nurses	3
Gone to school	9
Girls in the Home during unemployment	19
Girls in the Home	28
Returned home	9
Total	100

The chief source of income, apart from subscriptions, is derived from the work the girls do for Calcutta firms, in making tea bags, pharans and bank bags. The girls also do fancy work of all kinds and are paid according to the quantity and quality of the work done and the balance goes to the Home.

The health of the girls was good on the whole.

No girl dealt with under the Bengal Children Act or the Immoral Traffic Act was sent to the Home during the year under review.

The Home received the usual maintenance grant of Rs 960 from Government and its income from collections and donations amounted to Rs 7,290 in 1940 as against Rs 6,718 in the previous year.

(7) Society for the Protection of Children in India.—The number of children in the Society's custody on 31st December 1940 was 251, viz, 117 boys and 134 girls. The number of children who passed into its custody during the year was 67.

The Society received the usual maintenance grant of Rs 1,600 from Government. The total expenditure during the year amounted to Rs 39,119-11.

(8) The All-Bengal Women's Union.—The All-Bengal Women's Union has been recognised by Government for the purposes of clause (c), sub-section (7) of section 4 of the Bengal Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act, and also for the purposes of clauses (1) and (2) of section 14 of the same Act. The After-Care Home called "The All-Bengal Industrial Institute" at Dum Dum Cantonment, established by the Union, also caters for Indian girls dealt with under the two Acts. Its present capacity is 25 girls, and the total number of girls at the close of the year was 17. There was no new admission during the year.

The inmates of the Home receive general education, are taught weaving and needlework and given training as girl guides.

The health of the girls was fairly good on the whole

The cost of maintaining the Home during the year was about Rs 3,930. The Union received a Government grant of Rs 150 towards the payment of the rent of the building at Dum Dum in addition to Rs 961-11 on account of capitation grant for the girls sent there by the courts, and from His Excellency the Governor Rs 500 during the year

(9) Bengal After-Care Association for Juvenile and Adolescents.—

During the year the hostel received 172 new inmates of whom 100 came from the Borstal, 40 from the Reformatory School, 30 from the Alipore, Presidency and Berhampore Jails and 2 from Bombay; 40 boys escaped, of whom 12 came from the first and 28 from the second institution. Outside employment in suitable conditions was obtained for 63 boys. The health of the boys on the whole was good and discipline in the hostel showed distinct signs of improvement. Arrangements were made for regular recreation and for periodical outings

The Association received a maintenance grant of Rs 2,400 from Government and Rs 750 from His Excellency the Governor of Bengal during the year

During the year, the Director of Industries, Bengal, sanctioned a monthly grant of Rs 30 to meet the salary of the Weaving Teacher of the Industrial Section

The mufassal work of the Association is undertaken by several District Associations. A new Branch Association was formed in Bakarganj. The work done by the District Association in Bakarganj and Howrah was good

Probation work.—During the year under review, 369 children dealt with under the Bengal Children Act and Suppression of Immoral Traffic Act were on probation under the charge of 4 Probation Officers—2 women and 2 men

The probationers, as usual, were visited at regular intervals by the Probation Officers who, by keeping in touch with them and by friendly advice and close watch created an atmosphere suitable to bring about a change in the life outlook of these youthful offenders. Most of the probationers rendered good accounts of themselves under the sympathetic guidance of the officers and their future may be considered to be hopeful. The statistics of the Central Children's Court show that very few of the probationers came up for trial again

The Probation Officers have to cover wide areas in the course of their work and they are required to make initial enquiries into the antecedents, home conditions, etc., of all the children sent up for trial in connection with serious cases. This system helps the court to view juvenile offences more psychologically and enables it to strike at the genesis of such offences and adopt measures accordingly. Probation records are maintained for all probationers in which entries are made after every visit paid to the children and they are perused by the Magistrate of the Central Children's Court on the following day. Besides this detailed monthly charts are drawn by the Probation Officers and sent to the Chief Presidency Magistrate by the first week of every month for inspection.

During the year under consideration, the Presidency Magistrate of the Juvenile Court paid personal visits to the boys at their residences along with the Probation Officers to gain personal knowledge of the cases and to encourage the officers in their work

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly; and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 24th March, 1942 —

L A BILL No 22 OF 1942

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898,

V of 1898.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title

1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 194

Amendment of section 386, Act V of 1898

2. That in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the said Code), the words "unless for special reasons to be recorded in writing it considers it necessary to do so" shall be deleted

V of 1898.

Amendment of section 539-B, Act V of 1898.

3. To section 539-B of the said Code the following sub-section shall be added, namely —

"(3) In cases where a Magistrate considers an early inspection to be necessary or for some other reason to be recorded in writing, he considers that the inspection can be carried out by some other person as well, he may issue a commission to such person as he thinks fit directing him to make such inspection and report thereon to the Court.

Provided that in such cases the Magistrate may order such sum as he thinks reasonable for the expenses of the commissioner, to be, within a time fixed, paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the commission is issued:

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the previous sanction required under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Government of India Act, as saved from repeal by paragraph 12 of the Government of India (Commencement and Transitory Provisions) Order, 1936, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

Provided further that the Magistrate, or with the permission of the Magistrate any of the parties may examine the commissioner personally in open Court touching any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report.

Provided further that if for any reason the Magistrate is dissatisfied with the report of the commissioner, he may reject the report or may direct such further report to be made as he shall think fit."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In criminal cases where a fine is imposed and in case of default of payment a term of imprisonment is provided for, there seems to be no justification for the realization of fine after the term of imprisonment provided in case of default has been undergone. The issue of warrant of attachment in such cases is not proper. The amending Act XVIII of 1923 restricted the issue of warrant to cases where the magistrate thought it reasonable. But even that does not meet the justice of the case. Persons who for want of money prefer or are forced to go to or to remain in jail should not be put to further harassment after they have undergone the whole period of imprisonment. In practice it is generally not the convicted person only who is put to trouble by this provision but mostly his relations, friends and even neighbours. Penal law is not a fiscal measure and when imprisonment is substituted for fine and it is undergone the fine must be deemed to be remitted. It is with this object that section 386, Criminal Procedure Code, is sought to be amended by clause 2 of the Bill.

Clause 3 relates to an amendment of section 539-B. This section was inserted by Act XVIII of 1923 and the case law and the practice of the courts prior to this insertion was in favour of it. But the amendment does not go far enough. In practice it is sometimes very troublesome for the courts to make the inspection themselves. In many cases quite good or even better results can be obtained if the court has got a proper map of the locality with a report giving a detailed description of the same. There are sometimes cases in which the inspection of locality should be carried out at an early stage which in view of the other and more important duties of the magistrate may not be possible. Most of the cases in which such reports are necessary are cases on private complaints and if a party desires the issue of a commission it would be prepared to pay the expenses. Complaints in respect of offences causing damage to growing crops and property may sometimes require immediate inspection otherwise by the lapse of time good evidence may gradually cease to exist or be obliterated. Further in some cases there is a risk of the courts being unduly influenced by insidious attempts of a party in influencing the opinion of the inspecting magistrate by talks on the spot, as has been observed by several High Courts in some appeals and revisions coming up before them. It is, however, not intended to extend this provision to sessions trials before the Judges as in those cases the prosecution mostly provides the court with all the necessary materials and the police officers during the course of inquiry take sufficient care to note all such points and if anything remains it is only an inspection by the court. The proposed amendment is intended to give only the magistrates the power of issuing commissions.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd April, 1942:—

L. A. BILL No. 25 OF 1942

A Bill to abolish the punishment of Whipping

WHEREAS the punishment of Whipping has come to be regarded as a relic of less civilised times, it is expedient to abolish it altogether, It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Abolition of Whipping Act, 19

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, inclusive of British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas

Whipping an illegal punishment.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any Act or Rules or other provision having the force of law, whipping is not a legal punishment in British India

Repeal of Act IV of 1909

3. The Whipping Act 1909, is hereby repealed IV of 1909

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the previous sanction required by clause (c) of section 108(1) read with clause (a) of section 313(4) of the Government of India Act, 1935

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Whipping as a legal punishment is a relic of barbarous days, and lowers both the Government who suffer it to be inflicted on offenders, and the people who endure it in the scale of civilized humanity. Not only all civilized Governments have abolished it altogether and where it is retained, it is reserved for extremely heinous offences attended with revolting cruelty. The Whipping Act No IV of 1909 prescribes whipping for the pettyest of offences not less than for a few grave offences. Whipping is quite frequently resorted to in petty cases of theft, etc., and is often attended by extreme barbarity and excruciating bodily pain. The object of this Bill is to abolish whipping as a legal punishment.

No 128-11 ---His Excellency the Viceroy has been pleased to award the Indian Police Medal to the following officer ---

Name of officer and rank

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

Bengal.

Mir Kamrul Haque, constable, Dimapur district

On the 6th January 1942 constable Mir Kamrul Haque and three members of the rural police were present while the Sub-Inspector-in-charge of the Gangarampur police-station, Dimaipur district, was holding a local enquiry into the removal of certain bamboos by Krishak Praja volunteers. When the Sub-Inspector was inspecting the locality concerned he was attacked by a mob of more than 80 persons armed with lathies, daggers and other weapons.

The members of the rural police fled but constable Mir Kamrul Haque, who was unarmed, at once intervened and, at the cost of serious injuries to his person, succeeded in saving the life of the Sub-Inspector. His bravery and resource were particularly commendable, in view of the fact that he is still a probationer with less than three years' service.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation (d)(i) of the regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below rank of Inspector of Police.

[Dal o Netā Party and Leader Contains three articles about party and leadership in the field of politics The first article stresses the need of the organisation of a well-ordered political party, deals with the cardinal points on which the success of a party depends, discusses the characteristics of a good leader and his relation with his party and shows how the different political parties have been hampered in their path owing to their inherent defect in one way or other The second article notices the conflict of different political parties in India in order to point out that the cause of their failure in attaining their objective is their lack of proper contact and understanding with the masses and also suggests that of all the difference in Indian political parties the only party likely to have the lead and success in the field of politics is the Forward Bloc which appears to have appreciated the strength and ideal of the masses The third article points out that there must exist conflict and rivalry in politics but the things that are important for a party's success and unity upon its objective and organisation] Pages 55 Published by the author, 190-4, Rash Behari Avenue, Calcutta [18th February, 1941] Double Crown 16mo 1st edition 4 annas

[Kamgres o Bāmlā The Congress and Bengal Purports to say that at the root of the Bengal caste-Hindus' finding fault with the Congress in respect of its neither acceptance nor rejection policy with regard to the Communal Award which is being resisted by the Caste-Hindus but not being opposed by the Scheduled caste, lies their apprehension of being driven away from the field of the lucrative state services which they had hitherto monopolised to the exclusion of the Muslims and the Scheduled castes, that this apprehension has gone to bring about a split within the Congress-camp giving rise to the formation of the labour, the peasant and new middle-class organisations, that as a result, the Congress is going to be the organisation of the general mass in the country and that it will be suicidal on the part of Bengal to non-co-operate with the Congress now] Pages 19 Published by Sudhir Ray, Forward House, 32, Upper Circular Road, Calcutta [25th January, 1941] Double Crown 16mo 1st edition, 2 annas
